Universiti Kuala Lumpur (UniKL) has received 2 prominent visiting professors from University of Catania, Italy. Professor Daniele La Rosa and Prof. Pietro Scandura been visited to share his research field with staffs and students of Universiti Kuala Lumpur.

The visit aims to follow up the progress of the bilateral project participate by students of Universiti Kuala Lumpur. 4 students involve in the project supervised by Dr. Khairul Anuar bin Mat Saad and Dr. Amayrol Zakaria.

The detail of the project as follows:

1. Clement Paul
Title: Fluid Structure Interaction Analysis on Drag Force for Semi-Submersible
2. Mohamad Ikmal Zharif Mohamad
Title: Modelling and Simulation of SPAR Platform under nonlinear wave
3. Paatish Bahadur Rana A/L Ram Bahadur Rana
Title: Investigation of Optimization of Turbine for Oscillating Water Column
4. Izzat Nazir
Title: Drives Environmental Conflicts in Coastal Areas

Furthermore, both professors spare their time to give the public lecturer to those interested parties. Unfortunately, the number of participants for the event was below expectation due to semester break. The session runs smoothly with the interesting topics shared by both professors. Prof. Daniele also shared the opportunity to pursue post graduate studies with scholarship at University of Catania, Italy.
